Made possible by the AALAS Foundation...

The generous support of concerned corporations, groups, branches, and individuals like you enables us to:

- Develop and distribute powerful public outreach materials such as brochures, flyers, calendars, videos and DVDs

What is the AALAS Foundation?

The AALAS Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to educational outreach on the essential role of responsible laboratory animal care and use in science to advance human and animal health.

What does the AALAS Foundation do?

The AALAS Foundation develops educational materials, web-based public information resources, and training materials to help educate the public, students, and government officials about the importance of quality laboratory animal care, research, and medicine.

Why give to the AALAS Foundation?

The future of our profession depends on public acceptance of biomedical research. Your tax-deductible donations to the AALAS Foundation help:

- Further public understanding, respect and support for the life sciences
- Counter those working against our profession and the advancement of science and medicine
- Educate future leaders about the importance of responsible laboratory animal research
- Encourage today's students to become tomorrow's laboratory animal science researchers and specialists

- Support the Kids4Research.org website and participate in the Whyville.net community to educate students, teachers, and parents about biomedical research
- Develop interactive training materials to accompany AALAS training manuals
- Create web-based training courses on common laboratory animal species on the AALAS Learning Library
- Distribute public outreach materials to leading educators at science and biology conventions
